

NAME

address • city, state • phone • email

EDUCATION

Columbia University, Mailman School of Public Health, New York, NY May 2022
Master of Health Administration

Relevant Coursework: Accounting & Budgeting, Health Economics, Managerial & Organizational Behavior, Managerial Data Analysis & Decision Making

Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, MD June 2019
Bachelor of Arts in Public Health (Overall GPA: 3.5, Major GPA: 3.75)

Awards: Dean's List (four semesters), Johns Hopkins Second Decade Society Leadership Award, Johns Hopkins Outstanding Student Organization Program Award 2009 & 2010

EXPERIENCE

ACCENTURE, Baltimore, MD September 2019 – June 2020
Consultant, Health & Public Service Practice

- Evaluated and analyzed health IT market to identify gaps in client's current strategy for new technology adoption; made recommendations to senior management concerning technology adoption methodology
 - Provided support for IT implementation and created numerous deliverables which streamlined client operations resulting in a $6M reduction in overall costs
- Identified performance improvement opportunities for client that processed 5 million medical records annually
- Performed competitive analysis and authored six proposals to win client work worth over $65M in revenue
- Spearheaded Baltimore Women's Networking Group to foster professional collaboration among Accenture women based in the Baltimore region
- Honored with seven Accenture Recognize Performance Awards including: Maximizes Team Performance; Drives to Add Value (3); Builds and Applies Skills and Capabilities (2); Core Values Recognition: Recruiting Effort Success

JOHNS HOPKINS SECOND DECADE SOCIETY, Tamil Nadu, India July 2018 – June 2018
Project Manager

- Created, drafted, and pitched original project proposal to panel of Johns Hopkins deans and faculty that promoted cardiovascular fitness for rural women using culturally appropriate methods
- Selected as $15,000 grant winner out of class of 1,100 undergraduates at Johns Hopkins University
- Launched and executed program with limited resources in Tamil Nadu, India
- Taught at rural school for underprivileged children and prepared students for national board exams in biology

JOHNS HOPKINS HOSPITAL, Baltimore, MD January 2018 – July 2018
Healthcare Management Resident

- Analyzed best practices for improving patient satisfaction, quality assurance, and business processes
- Supported clinical operations and financial functions within the Department of Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation for budgets of up to $5M

WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION (WHO/PAHO), Washington, D.C. May 2017 – August 2017
Neglected Tropical Diseases Intern

- Reconstructed neglected data concerning tropical diseases in Latin America & Caribbean countries (LAC) for public dissemination; assessed scientific literature on the reduction of communicable diseases in LAC

LEADERSHIP

Peace by Peace, Washington, DC Vice President May 2019 – August 2019
Johns Hopkins Medicine, Baltimore, MD Research Assistant September 2019 – August 2020

SKILLS

Languages Conversational Spanish; Fluent Kannada (South Indian language); basic Hindi
Computer Advanced Excel, PowerPoint, Access; basic JAWS, Dragon and Magic training
Additional Over 15 years of Indian Classical Dance training and several dozen performances