

Nurses on the Frontlines of the Climate Crisis - Education for Action Instructions for Receiving Continuing Education Credits and Certificate of Participation

Nursing Continuing Education (CE)

Nursing Continuing Education (CE) for participating in Nursing on the Frontlines of the Climate Crisis: Education for Action webinar series will be provided through the Alliance of Nurses for Healthy Environments (ANHE). Following each individual webinar, attendees will be directed to ANHE's learning platform (www.learning.enviRN.org) to access the webinar recording and post session evaluation.

In order to receive CE (1 CE available per individual webinar), participants must have attended the live webinar session OR view the recording AND receive at least 80% on the post session evaluation. Participants who attended the live webinar session on Zoom will be provided a password which allows them to bypass the video viewing requirement.

Instructions for Completing Continuing Education (CE)

1. Go to the ANHE's Learning site at learning.enviRN.org,
2. In the upper right hand corner, Click Register,
3. Create an account (Students must verify the account by clicking a link sent via email). ***If you do not receive a confirmation email, do not worry. An ANHE staff member will confirm all unconfirmed accounts once per week. Thank you for your patience,
4. Click View Courses in the center of the home page or Click Courses on the top menu bar
