RECESSIONAL

CHERYL PEGUS, MD, MPH'92, FACC
CEO AND BOARD CHAIR OF FLYTEHEALTH

Dr. Cheryl Pegus serves as CEO and chair of FlyteHealth, bringing more than 30 years of clinical and business leadership across health care.

She has been a partner at Morgan Health, supporting venture investments, and served as executive vice president of Health & Wellness at Walmart, overseeing pharmacy, optical, and clinical services. Previously, Dr. Pegus was president of Consumer Solutions and chief medical officer at Cambia Health Solutions, where she led pharmacy services, network management, and clinical services. Earlier in her career, she held leadership roles at Pfizer and Aetna, where she advanced wellness, women's health, and predictive analytics initiatives. She began her career in practice as a cardiologist and has been recognized nationally as one of the most influential health care leaders and clinical executives.

Dr. Pegus is co-chair of the Duke-Margolis Capital Impact Council and the author of several healthy cookbooks. She serves on the boards of public and private companies, as well as the boards of the American Heart Association and the Alice Walton School of Medicine.

She earned her bachelor's degree from Brandeis University, her MD from Weill Cornell Medical College, and her MPH from the Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health.

THE OATH FOR PUBLIC HEALTH PROFESSIONALS¹

Health is a human right. The public health community exists to safeguard that right. It is a defining element of a civil society. Public health represents the collective actions necessary to protect the health of all people. Through prevention science and practice we can accomplish this goal. As a public health professional, guided by these principles, I declare the following:

I will work to ensure that all people have the chance to live full and productive lives, free from avoidable disease, injury, and disability, and are supported in their pursuit of physical, mental, and social well-being.

I will hold myself to the highest ethics, standards, values, and responsibilities as I move forward the science and practice of public health.

I will respect the rights, values, beliefs, and cultures of those individuals and communities with whom I work.

I will rely on evidence to support my decisions and actions, and translate that evidence into policies and programs that improve health for all.

I will add to the body of research and knowledge and share my discoveries freely.

I will continuously seek new information and be open to ideas that can better protect and promote the health of populations.

I will advance health literacy for all and seek equity and justice for marginalized populations.

With this oath, I commit to the ideals and mission of public health.

¹Rothman S, Lapp I, Corman R, Fried LP. May 2009. This oath was developed by the faculty and students of the Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health to articulate the professional commitment of the School's students, graduates, and faculty.
