

Anastasia Roussos '06PH

A 2006 graduate of Mailman's Department of Sociomedical Sciences, Anastasia continues to learn and practice innovative approaches to program development, community engagement, implementation, needs assessment and evaluation as public health professional at the New York City Department of health and Mental Hygiene. At DOHMH she has worked in various capacities on critical public health challenges focused on improving the children's mental healthcare system and advancing City and State public health policies and initiatives to improve children's mental health wellbeing. She aims to collaborate with the board's diverse alumni leaders and partner with the alumni community to facilitate continued learning, address alumni need, and advance Mailman's priorities.
