

Conversations around public health, architecture, and cities

Presented by the Urban/Health Program

APRIL 22, 2014

Studio-X NYC
180 Varick Street

9:00 – 9:25 BREAKFAST AND INFORMAL GREETINGS

9:25 – 9:30 WELCOMING REMARKS

Dean Linda P. Fried

Mailman School of Public Health

Dean Mark A. Wigley

Graduate School for Architecture, Planning and Preservation

9:30 – 9:35 OVERVIEW OF THE DAY

Sandro Galea, MD, DrPH

Mailman School of Public Health

Hilary Sample, M.Arch

Graduate School for Architecture, Planning and Preservation

9:35 – 10:15 KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Carlos Dora, MD, PhD

World Health Organization

10:15 – 11:25 UNDERSTANDING CITIES, UNDERSTANDING HEALTH: STATE OF AND CHALLENGES TO SCHOLARSHIP

PANELISTS

Gina Lovasi, PhD, MPH

Mailman School of Public Health

Giovanna Borasi

Canadian Centre for Architecture

Andrew Rundle, PhD

Mailman School of Public Health

11:25 – 11:40 BREAK

11:40 – 12:50 CASE STUDIES: LEARNING BY EXAMPLE

PANELISTS

Karen Lee, MD, MHS

New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene

Lynn Freedman, JD, MPH

Mailman School of Public Health

12:50 – 1:50 LUNCH

1:50 – 3:00 BUILDING HEALTHY CITIES IN THE FUTURE

PANELISTS

Peter Muennig, MD, PhD

Mailman School of Public Health

Vishaan Chakrabarti, M.Arch, MCP

Graduate School for Architecture, Planning and Preservation

Natalie Jeremijenko, PhD

New York University

3:00 – 4:00 IN CONVERSATION

Deans Fried and Wigley

